Fourth International Clinical Skills Conference Prato 2011

Following the successful 'Third International Skills Conference' held in 2009, a fourth conference will be held in 2011 at the Prato Monash Centre in Italy.

The Fourth International Clinical Skills Conference 2011 will be held in the Prato Monash Centre in Italy. It is being convened by the College of Medicine, Dentistry and Nursing, Institute of Health Skills and Education, University of Dundee; in conjunction with the Centre for Medical & Health Sciences Education, Monash University.

This conference will meet the needs of interprofessional researchers and practitioners involved in the development of high quality education in all aspects of clinical skills. The conference is designed to:

- Provide a forum for debate on innovation and the evidence base for clinical skills teaching and learning
- Showcase research and best practice on clinical skills education
- Stimulate innovation in clinical skills
- Gather expert and beginner clinical skills educators for networking
- Aid funding for research on clinical skills

The conference is being held in Prato, Italy at the 18th Century Palazzo Vaj. This is a beautiful building which has an open-air terrazzo, is surrounded by medieval towers and is the location for Monash University in Prato. It is the ideal location to hold a conference bringing together a European and Australasian collaboration. It is situated 25 minutes by train, from Florence and is easily accessible. It will provide your Organisation/ Company with a platform to promote yourself and the opportunity to network with this exclusive group of healthcare professionals primarily from the UK, Europe and Australasia. These professionals are involved in clinical skills education across a variety of health professional disciplines, including undergraduate and postgraduate medicine from Hospital and Community specialties.

This successful Conference has attracted over 250 delegates from 16 countries and represents the key medical institutions worldwide.

It consists of keynote speakers, 'hands on' workshops and opportunities for delegates to present their own work as oral presentations, workshops or posters.

Benefits for participating sponsors

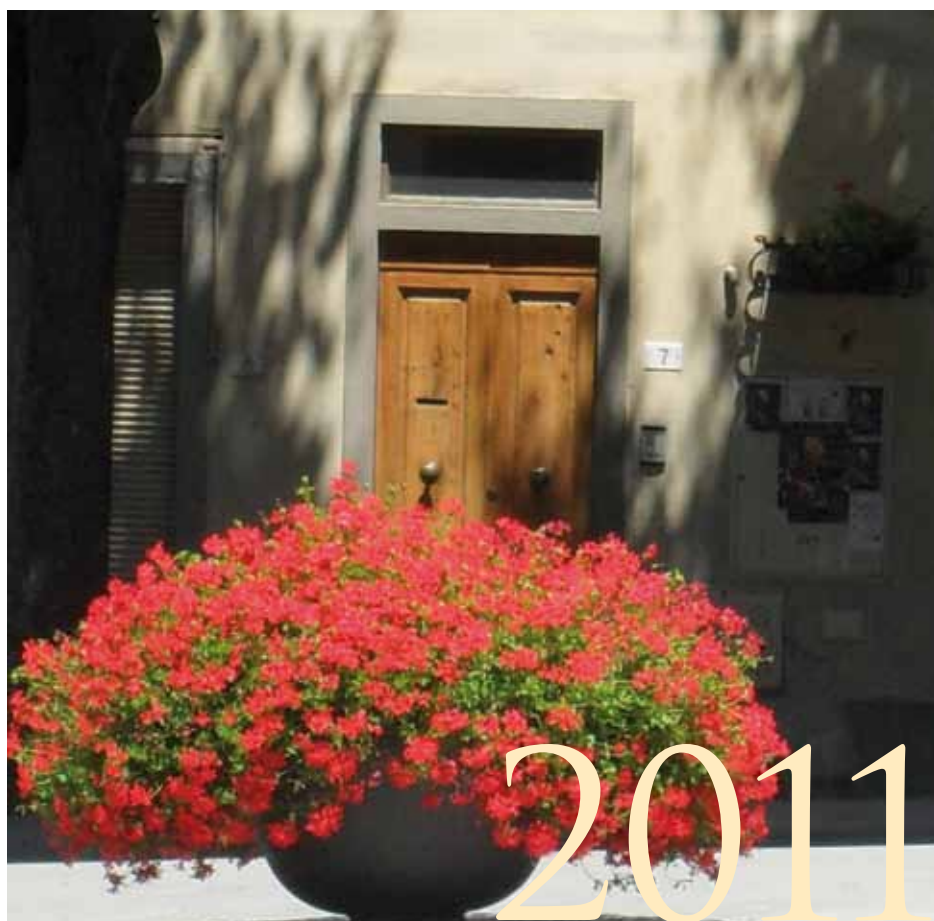

Some of the great sponsorship benefits include:

- A unique opportunity for exposure and networking with highly motivated and influential healthcare professionals

- A concentrated marketing and exposure opportunity for your Company throughout the Conference
- A chance to promote your products, company image and services to healthcare professionals
- The opportunity to maintain a high profile among higher education institutions and/or professional organisations.

There are five levels of Sponsorship available, each with attractive benefits. We invite you to peruse the Sponsorship Opportunities available to you on the following pages, which outline the benefits associated with each level of Sponsorship.

All prices to be paid in Australian Dollar equivalents.
